Introduction for nomination of Thomas F. Connors. Ph.D. to the NJSIG Board of Trustees.

Dr. Connors has been a member of the Piscataway Township Board of Education since 2008. For the past three years, Tom has been the Chair of the Fiscal Planning and Operations Committee. He is also a member of the Policy/ Legislation Committee. He served as the Board's Vice President in 2013, been Chair of Community Relations Committee, and a member of the Curriculum and Programs Committee. Tom has also been a member of the Negotiations Committee representing the board to the Piscataway Township Education Association and the Piscataway Principles and Supervisors Association. Tom has been Piscataway's representative to the Middlesex County School Boards Association since 2011. From 2011 to 2014 Tom served on the New Jersey School Boards' Board of Directors representing Middlesex County. During that time, Tom was a member of the Finance Committee for two years, served on the Nominations Committee, and was appointed to Ad hoc Committee on Governance. Tom is currently a member of Legislative Committee and Resolutions Subcommittee. Since being elected as a Board Member in Piscataway, in addition to mandated board member training, Tom has earned two New Jersey School Boards Awards recognizing his skills in board member governance: The Certified School Board Member Award, and most recently, The Master School Board Member Award.
